

2025 Bishop's Ranch Retreat with Fr. Seán ÓLaoire
Sunday, March 23 – Wednesday, March 26

“What in God’s name is Christ Consciousness?”

In a recent dream, I asked for a pithy definition of ‘Christ Consciousness.’ Here’s what I got: “Christ Consciousness is the permanent awareness of the inner divinity of all creatures.” For the 2025 retreat, I thought I might unpack that definition. Here are some of the factors I’ll cover: Christ Consciousness is the birthright of all incarnated beings. But it’s a game of hide-and-go-seek because brave souls volunteer to temporarily separate themselves from Source in order to experience the heart-sobbing nostalgia for home – a home in which only Love exists; a home in which the game of ego-versus-others is folded up. We find ourselves in the Green Room at the end of the dream-drama in which all of the actors have played their parts in the Improv Theatre of Earth Life.

I will look at the ‘Jesus’ cohort’ (the two Marys’ and John-the-beloved) and attempt to exegete aspects of his life, healings, teaching, death and resurrection - in order to isolate what this consciousness actually is.
